Film Description: Oral Roberts University students have the amazing opportunity to gain experience working alongside a professional production crew from Argentina. (Protasowicki Engler Producciones). The crew consisting of the Director, Director of Actors, DP, Audio, Art, Producers and three actors are flying into Tulsa to film the last part of their feature film, Yo Traidor, with our students. This is a collaboration project that ORU has invested in both financially and with their equipment and time to give the students an opportunity to get hands-on training with professionals during a professional production. The crew are also meeting with students the week before the shoot to train them on their specific roles and prepare them for the shoot. In total, 8 crew members will be flying in and will be supported by 15 students. Prof. Rafael Barreiro, the Film Professor from ORU, is the Unit Production Manager and Andrew Squance, Project Coordinator for ORU's Communication and Media Department is Assistant UPM.
