Commissioners Brown and Logan arrive 9:30 a. m.

Mr. J. C. Hollis appeared before the commission and presented his cemetery deed, which covered the NW $\frac{1}{4}$ of Block 276, Oaklawn, whereas all available records show him as owner of the NE $\frac{1}{4}$ of said block, and the records further disclose there have been three burials on said NE $\frac{1}{4}$, two of which were relatives of the said Mr. Hollis and one of which was erroneously placed there in the year 1915. After considerable discussion and effort on the part of the commission and City Attorney, there was no way found in which the City could remove the body of one A. Prada, no action taken on the matter.

Representatives of firms with the exception of one making bids on Parking meters appeared before the commission and explained their product in detail. Mayor penney announced that possible award would be made Friday, August 14th.
