

INTRODUCTION

ABOUT THE THEME

As Tulsa celebrates the Route 66 Centennial this year, we're encouraging residents and visitors to hit the road – The Mother Road!

With 28 miles of Route 66 within city limits, Tulsa proudly embraces its title as the "Capital of Route 66." Cyrus Avery, the "Father of Route 66," believed Tulsa could be an economic hub and that a well-planned highway could drive prosperity. Advancing that vision, the City of Tulsa has continued investing not only in the corridor, but in infrastructure and attractions that make Tulsa a great place to live, work, and play.

We invite you and others across the world to take a trip along Tulsa's historic patch of The Mother Road and get your kicks on Route 66!
