

Tulsa Women's Commission

WHO WE ARE

A volunteer group of leaders that engages in research, policy, and advocacy in service of Tulsa's women.

The Tulsa Women's Commission is a group of mayoral-appointed volunteers established by City Ordinance. We conduct research, recommend policies, and directly advocate for women across our city. Staffed by the Department of Resilience and Equity, we meet monthly at City Hall. Meetings are open to the public.

2026 STRATEGIC FOCUS

Women's Safety in Tulsa

Personal
Safety

Housing &
Economic Security

Health &
Emotional Safety

Community Safety
& Belonging

Grounding all four pillars: a foundation of systems, rights, and institutional safety.

2026 COMMISSIONERS

Dr. Laura Latta – Chair
Kate Neary – Vice Chair
Premadonna Braddick
Mary Quinn Cooper
Dezeray Edwards
Ashleigh Frohrip
Charisa Jacobs

Betsy Jackson
Dr. Meg Myers Morgan
Maria Carlota Palacios
Marcia BrunoTodd
Toneille Bent
Jackie DuPont

PAST INITIATIVES

Units of Inquiry

A 15 month deep-dive learning agenda spanning economic security, mental health, safety, and healthcare access across Tulsa.

Childcare Access Report

Documented Tulsa's childcare shortage and its outsized impact on working women and the local economy.

Pay Equity Pledge

Women in Tulsa County earn 84¢ for every dollar a man earns. This employer pledge commit organizations to bridging the gap through equitable hiring.